Message from John Davies, Managing Director:

TDSi manufactures its products in the UK, providing our customers with products of high quality and reliability at a competitive market price. Providing value for money has always been important to TDSi and in the uncertain economic times value has never been so important.

That's why we have taken the opportunity at IFSEC to launch new variants of our network controllers. Please welcome MICROgarde I & II IP controllers with a fantastic price that will please all our installers.
