

If what's most valuable is on the inside, why can everyone get in?

SMARTair™ KeYPad Escutcheon is the simple way to filter access to sensitive areas.

SMARTair™ KeyPad Escutcheon: the key to your business's security

You know better than anyone that all businesses have sensitive areas that must be protected. Keys are inconvenient as they can be lost, copied, or stolen. For all those places that require extra security and where you want to filter who can access, SMARTair™ KeyPad escutcheon is the ideal solution.

Easy to install and program on any door, this simple device makes sure that only the people you want to get inside, can. Protecting the most valuable part of your business with a convenient, easy, and affordable solution is not a dream any more.

These are only a few examples of rooms that can be protected.
